She alleges further that he is the owner of some lots in the village of Portage and asks that he be restrained from disposing of them pending the divorce proceedings.

BIG BALL GAME SUNDAY.

On next Sunday afternoon the local base ball fans will have an opportunity to witness what promises to be one of the fastest and most interesting amateur ball games ever given in Perrysburg.

The fast Metamora Ohio, team will be here on that date for the second game of a series of three, the first having been played at Metamora some three weeks ago, when Perrysburg suffered a defeat 10 to 3.

The fans of Metamora have chartered two cars on the Toledo and Western Railroad and are also bringing along their brass band of fifteen pieces.

The local boys are showing a lot of ginger since their former defeat at Metamora, and are determined to annex this game to their won column.

Let everybody turn out for the game and show the visitors that Metamora is not the only town in Ohio that can produce a crowd at a ball game.

HEAD CUT OFF

And Body Horribly Mangled By Freight Train.

Deloris Longbrake, aged nine, lost his life just north of Deshler Sunday, when he fell beneath the wheels of a B. & O. freight train bound south on the C. H. & D. His head was cut off, his right arm severed from the shoulder and his left arm amputated by the wheels. Two stories are current as to the accident. One is that he attempted to crawl beneath the train as it stood still on the track. The other is that he attempted to crawl over the coupling pin and was shaken off when the engine started the train. He was the son of Homer Longbrake.

A YELLOW JACKET STING CAUSED SEVERE ILLNESS.

The sting of a yellow jacket came near being attended by fatal results to Mrs. Amanda Donner of Bloomdale, who was attending the Klais family reunion at Meadowbrook park Wednesday. She was made so ill that she was under the care of a physician for several hours. While Mrs. Donner was eating dinner at the noon hour a yellow jacket which had gotten in the food stung her on the tongue. She immediately became violently ill and her condition became so rapidly worse that within a few minutes she was unconscious. A physician was hurriedly summoned from Bascom, and when he arrived, her pulse was very low. He worked for considerable time before she responded to restoratives and it was not until four o'clock that she had recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home in an automobile.—Fostoria Times

BLUE BIRD DISAPPEARING.

It is said that the blue bird or blue robin is fast disappearing and it is predicted that in fifty years to come this beautiful feathered songster will be as rare to be seen as is now the wild pigeon, which was once so numerous in this part of the country. A bird lover, in an exchange, tells how to get the bluebird back. "In the first place, give him more tree room; put out trees in waste places, and thick around the home. The bluebird likes the dark shady places, where the insects are out on a lark. But a more direct way, thinks this bird lover, to win them back is to provide nests for them. The bluebirds like to build nests in boxes, which should be placed only six or seven feet from the ground in some quiet place about the yard or field. The height is particular, for if the box is placed much higher the English sparrow would take possession, and any body who would build a home for the English sparrow ought to be scalped. That pest will not build where one can reach him from the ground. The box should be made deep, so the cats cannot get at the eggs or young. We speak thus of the bluebird because of its beauty and use. We would prefer it as an outdoor possession to a Persian rug or an electric fan in the house."

DASTARDLY CRIME

Attempt Made to Commit Rape on 11 Year Old Girl.

Bound over to Common Pleas Court on the charge of attempt to commit rape upon the person of a child of 11 years, Frank (Frenchy) LaFlore of Perrysburg, is now in the county jail, where he will probably remain until the Grand Jury takes up his case when it convenes on September 25, as it is very doubtful if he can secure $2,000 bail assessed by Justice of the Peace Wetzel.

The facts in the case as shown at the hearing in Justice court are about follows:

The victim of the attempted outrage is the 11-year-old daughter of Edward Stefflin who recently moved here from Toledo, and resides on Cherry and Seventh streets. She had come up from Toledo and was walking out Cherry street to her home and when about to cross the railroad track at Railroad and Cherry streets she was accosted by Frank LaFlore, a man about 30 years of age, who attempted to force her to go under a freight train and into the wheel factory yard, and in the struggle her underclothing was torn and other evidences of attempted assault. The little girl managed to get away from him and hurried to her home where she told her mother.

The little nine-year-old brother who was near by, began pelting LaFlore with stones, and in his endeavor to dodge the stones, the little girl succeeded in breaking away from LaFlore and running home.

As soon as possible the child's father secured the assistance of Marshal Mills who secured a description of the man from the girl, and at once started to find LaFlore. As soon as the girl saw him she recognized him as her assailant, and Marshal Mills lost no time in placing LaFlore in jail where he remained until Saturday morning and was then given a hearing before Justice Wetzel.

LaFlore stoutly denied the charge, but was unable to convince the Justice of his innocence, and was sent over to jail to await trial. The child was badly frightened but fortunately managed to escape before the attempted purpose was accomplished.

MOTORCYCLIST KILLED.

A man about 35 years of age, supposed to be R. Bennett, residing at 11 Charles St., Akron, O., from a card found in his pocket, met with a fatal accident at Grand Rapids, about noon Wednesday.

He was crossing the river on a motorcycle at the above place, when it presumed the machine became unmanageable, running him off the abutment to the bridge and into the river below. The river at that place being nearly dry, the rocks of the bed protrude above the surface upon which the man's head struck. He was immediately placed in an automobile and brought to the Rheinfrank Hospital by Dr. Mercer, of Grand Rapids, where it was found that the base of the skull was fractured. He died about thirty minutes after reaching the hospital.

The body was taken to Witzlers undertaking rooms, while the man's friends at Akron were notified.

JUST LIKE THE DOG.

A dog sat out in the midnight and howled at the beaming moon: his knowledge of music was strictly nit and his voice was out of tune. And he howled and howled as the hours went by, while dodging the bricks we threw, till the moon was low in the western sky, and his voice split in two. And there wasn't a thing at which to howl over which a pup would weep, and the course of the dog was wrong and foul, for people were wild to sleep. There are plenty of men like that blamed foolhound, who yell when there's nothing wrong, disturbing the country with senseless sound—the pessimist's doleful song.—Ex.

TO MUCH TO BE SEEN

At the Elks' Festival, But it Can be Enjoyed by All.

Visitors to the great exposition of the world have always had the same good natured plaint that patrons of the three ringed circus have, that is, they couldn't see it all. There can be, in spite of what some folks say, too much of a good thing.

This objection was advanced the other day by a man to whom an enthusiastic Elk was talking about the Festival which is to be held in Bowling Green from the 14th to the 19th of August. "Why," he said, "you advertise over a hundred magnificent donations and gifts which have been made you by your generous friends. Who on earth could see all of them?" But his objections were not well taken.

It is true that the Elks have a round hundred magnificent presents which have been made them and that these will constitute but one feature out of many. But did you ever stop to think that this is unlike the three ringed circus or the limited stay you made at the exposition? It will be running six afternoons and six evenings. Take a session to a feature and you will be able to see and enjoy it all. Bowling Green is accessible from every place in the county and no one who has been to one Festival performance will overlook a single opportunity to go back again.

The virtue of this Festival is that, while there will be altogether too much to be seen and enjoyed at one meeting, there is ample to keep every one happy and entertained and in an entirely different way each time they come.

Do not forget in the talk which is made about all the other good things that there is to be a literary and musical program which will be a big card every day and which will rival any entertainment of even that sort put on in Wood county in a long while.

All roads will lead to Bowling Green on the week of the 14th to the 19th. Remember the Festival dates do not conflict with any thing else and the men or the woman who isn't an Elk or an Elness will find even more to attract than those who are of the household.

SENATOR BEATTY DECIDES

TO RUN FOR DELEGATE.

Former Senator Beatty is definitely in the race as a candidate for election as one of the two delegates from Wood county to the constitutional convention. After thinking the matter over for several days, says the Sentinel, the senator gave out a statement Tuesday morning in which he said:

"There has been so much pressure in the way of urging that I get into the race for delegate to the constitutional convention that I have decided to submit my name to the voters of Wood county. I want it distinctly understood at the outset of the campaign that I am not going to make the race as a member of any party but as a non-partisan."

DID YOU EVER?

Did you ever, in your childhood days in the country, watch the thirsty corn leaves drink in the rain? We say, "madder than a wet hen;" but, did you ever see a wet hen crawl out from under a dripping bush and hunt her comrades and exult with them, glad that she is alive? Did you ever see horses and cows take the rain in preference to seeking shelter? Did you ever after the rain was over, wade out as Nature intended you to paddle, in search of half-drowned ducks and goslings? Did you ever defy the paternal edict, and, as a just but awful retribution, sit down backwards into a damp puddle? And, did you ever, the fields too wet to work, trudge off fishing, the privilege of sitting on the creek-bank well earned? Best of all, coming home tired, the temperature cooled off, ever smell the pancakes and fried ham your mother was getting ready in the summer kitchen? If you haven't, then you have missed something from your education that the greatest university in the world can not teach you.—Fostoria Times.
